

Online Master of Business Administration

The Online Master of Business Administration (MBA) at UMSL is a cohort-based program designed for motivated, focused, goal-oriented leaders who are ready to take the next step in their career. The Online MBA program requires 33-credit hours and lets you complete the degree in as few as 16 months.

The curriculum familiarizes participants with the fundamental areas of business administration while offering hands-on projects and real-world case studies. Featuring course content that equips students to adapt quickly in an ever-changing business landscape, professional leadership coaching and faculty mentoring, the Online MBA prepares students for dynamic, rewarding careers.

The Online MBA from UMSL will prepare you to lead teams, develop effective marketing and promotion strategies, and communicate clearly while developing healthy working relationships. Upon completion of the program, graduates will be able to apply what they've learned to real-world business situations as well as:

- Expand leadership skills to effectively engage with stakeholders in a professional manner;
- Effectively communicate business insights using oral and written formats;
- Critically evaluate emerging markets and technologies;
- Understand complex business financial affairs;
- Demonstrate knowledge of core business content in accounting, finance, information systems, supply chain analytics, management and marketing;
- Apply core business principles for effective business decision making; and
- Demonstrate analytical skills to solve business problems and evaluate the conditions of corporations and markets.

More than 27,000 professionals have graduated from the UMSL College of Business Administration, many of whom continue to live and work in the St. Louis metropolitan area. That translates into a powerful alumni network and access to the region's top corporations, nonprofits and startups.

Serious education. Serious value.

The Online MBA at UMSL is earned through our internationally recognized College of Business Administration, ranked among the top two percent of business schools in the world thanks to dual AACSB accreditation in both business and accounting.

You'll learn from highly qualified educators and researchers who hold terminal degrees from some of the world's most prestigious academic institutions. They're not only academics, but also business practitioners and active consultants who bridge the classroom with the real world.

Business administration students benefit from six College Advisory Boards, the Leadership Council and the Business Alumni Association, all of which are staffed by experienced business professionals from some of the best-known St. Louis-area companies. These professionals lend their expertise, experience, time, passion and enthusiasm to ensure that curricula keep pace with the ever-changing needs of businesses and that employers' needs are being fulfilled. They also provide opportunities that enhance student education with tours of their facilities, guest lectures, internships, mentoring and more.
