

The Bachelor of Arts in

Modern Languages, with an Emphasis in Spanish

Be fluent in Spanish.

Advanced proficiency in Spanish is highly valued given the hundreds of millions of Spanish speaking people in the world and the fact that Spanish is the second most used language in the United States. Experience with world cultures and languages makes graduates more adaptable and better prepared to meet the challenges of a global and increasingly diverse job market.

The Bachelor of Arts in Modern Language, with an Emphasis in Spanish

The Bachelor of Arts in Modern Language, with an Emphasis in Spanish develops linguistically and culturally competent and ready-to-be global citizens. We offer a broad range of coursework in Spanish, from foundational courses in language and culture to courses focused on literature, linguistics, creative writing and professions, all aimed at developing competencies for the 21st century. We encourage study abroad through our short-term faculty-led programs in Costa Rica and Barcelona, as well as through year-long programs in partner institutions.

Upon completion of the BA in Modern Language, with an Emphasis in Spanish, graduates will possess the necessary linguistic and cultural competencies to interact with native speakers in culturally appropriate ways; use the target language in a variety of academic, social and professional situations and have a rich understanding of the target cultures; be able to critically explore their own assumptions, value alternative perspectives and act with cultural sensitivity, meet the challenges of a globalized world and continue developing their skills as lifelong learners.

BS in Secondary Education with an Emphasis in Modern Language, Spanish

Spanish majors interested in teaching Spanish in secondary schools may obtain teacher certification in cooperation with the College of Education by fulfilling the BS with certain prescribed courses in Spanish.
