

LGBTQ Students

A Career Counselor Can Help You Answer:

- Should I disclose my sexual orientation on my resume or in an interview?
- What can recruiters ask me in an interview?
- How can I access mentors in career fields of interest to me?

Tips for Researching Employers:

- Is there an LGBTQQIAP employee interest group?
- Does the organization offer domestic partner benefits?
- Does the anti-discrimination policy include sexual orientation?
- Participate in employer information sessions, UMSL career fairs and campus recruiting
- Access UMSL Career Services Office resources

On-Campus Resources:

- PRIZM
- Safe Zone

Local/ State Resources:

- Pride STL
- The LGBT Center of STL
- St. Louis Gender Foundation
- Metro Trans Umbrella Group
- Human Rights Campaign Missouri

National Resources:

- National Center for Transgender Equality
- National Center for Lesbian Rights (includes legal issues, transgender issues)
- GLSEN
- Out for Undergrad
- Pride at Work
- LGBT Connect
- Out Professionals
- Out @ Equal Workplace Advocates
- Gay and Lesbian Alliance against Defamation
- U.S. Equal Employment and Opportunity Commission
- Services & Advocacy for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender Elders