This course introduces students to the genres, themes, tropes and art of Japanese animation (anime) and comics (manga). Other topics include literature, fashion, fan culture, religion, and social movements. Of particular concern will be the historical foundations for these cultural events, the way they have developed in the postwar period, and how they have moved beyond Japan to influence global movements. Course is offered online. No prerequisites.

Instructor: Dr. Christopher Born