

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) at UMSL is a flexible program designed for motivated professionals who are focused, goal-oriented, and ready to take the next step in their career. The Flex MBA program provides working professionals with the flexibility to work at their own pace and design a program of study that meets their needs and fits into their schedule.

The program is designed to accommodate a busy professional's life by offering classes in the evening, online or in a hybrid format, enabling students to balance school, work, and life. MBA students may choose to build a general, broad-ranging program or focus with an emphasis in accounting, business analytics, cybersecurity, finance, information systems and technology, international business, management, marketing and supply chain management.

Upon completion of at least 30-credit hours, graduates should be able to apply what they've learned to real-world business situations and:

- Understand complex business financial affairs
- Maintain awareness of legal and compliance issues
- Critically evaluate emerging markets and technologies
- Lead and manage groups and teams
- Develop effective marketing and promotion strategies
- Communicate effectively and develop healthy working relationships

More than 27,000 professionals have graduated from the UMSL College of Business Administration nationwide, many of whom continue to live and work in the St. Louis metropolitan area. That translates into a powerful alumni network and access to the region's top corporations, nonprofits and start-ups.

Choose Your Emphasis.

The Flex MBA program at UMSL allows you to select from the following emphasis areas which all require 9 credit hours of classes within the area:

- Accounting
- Business Analytics
- Cybersecurity
- Finance
- Information Systems and Technology
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Supply Chain Management

Serious Education. Serious Value.

The Master of Business Administration at UMSL is earned through our internationally recognized College of Business Administration, ranked among the top 2 percent of business schools in the world thanks to dual AACSB accreditation in both business and accounting.

You'll learn from highly qualified educators and researchers who hold terminal degrees from some of the world's most prestigious academic institutions. They're not only academics, but business practitioners and active consultants who bridge the classroom with the real world.

Business administration students learn and collaborate in a state-of-the-art facility outfitted with smart classrooms containing all the latest teaching technology, cutting edge seminar rooms, group learning environments, community spaces and a high-tech trading room featuring 12 Bloomberg terminals and a real-time stock ticker.

The University of Missouri–St. Louis provides the knowledge, resources, tools, skills and support students need to be successful in our programs. Designed to accommodate busy adults, the flexibility of this program enables students to boost their credentials while balancing work, family and school life. UMSL is committed to increasing access to higher education, and as such, is consistently ranked number one in affordability in the St. Louis area.
