July 8 - August 2

UMSL is hosting A Virtual High-Impact Beginning Teacher Assistance Program

Our redesigned BTAP program is specifically for PK - twelfth grade public or private school classroom teachers who are teaching in the first through fourth year of their career. Over a period of four weeks, participants will engage in four workshop topics:

- Classroom Environment
- Student Engagement and Motivation
- Education Related Law
- Professional Communication

This is an active virtual conference that requires both synchronous and asynchronous participation. Each Monday, participants will meet synchronously for two hours from 5-7 pm. In addition, participants can expect to spend 2-4 hours each week completing the asynchronous workshop requirements which could entail: reading materials, watching videos and completing tasks.

Here's What to Expect

Learn from Expert Master Teachers Sarah Olbrantz, Ed.D. DeAnna Massie, Ed.D.	Engage with Peers <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Meet in a supportive and motivating environment to enhance success in and out of the classroom environment.• Develop professional relationships with other practicing classroom teachers and university faculty sharing effective practices and experience.• Discuss and reflect on current educational standards, issues of current and future concern.
