

Master of Science (MS) Applied Behavioral Analysis

Degree Program

- A 39-hour, online-based graduate program meeting the requirements for national Board Certified Behavior Analyst® (BCBA®) certification and leading to eligibility to sit for the national BCBA examination
- The M.S. in ABA Program prepares behavior experts who provide the needed assistance in our region. If you are a professional who assists individuals who have behavioral concerns, or for school personnel who provide instruction and guidance directly to children in inclusive settings, this program supports your knowledge, understanding, and implementation of research-driven strategies that improve the quality of life of children and families.
