Lloyd “Henry” Evitts is the Vice President of Manufacturing for the H-J Family of Companies. He is responsible for coordinating manufacturing resources across 4 manufacturing facilities in 3 countries with 400 employees in order to meet the needs of H-J’s customers in 45+ countries around the world.

Lloyd has been with H-J since its founding in 1969 and held various positions during his career there.

A native of Saint Louis, Lloyd grew up and lives in South County. He enjoys spending time with his wife of 48 years, his 3 children and 9 grandchildren, traveling, and all outdoor activities. He has been involved in many different organizations representing a large breadth of experiences. Lloyd is a veteran of the United States Coast Guard Reserve, where he specialized in port security in Miami, Boston, and on the Mississippi River. His love of service grew out of his experiences earning his Eagle Scout rank in the Boy Scouts of America; an organization that he is still actively involved with as an Adult Scouter in many capacities, including community service leadership, fundraising, rank advancement, and chairing the committee for his troop. Lloyd is a member of the Saint Catherine Laboure parish and has been active in its leadership for over 30 years. Lloyd also served on the Board of Trustees for Sunset Country Club, involved with various committees dealing with finances, operations, and strategic planning.

Lloyd has served as a member of UMSL’s International Business Advisory board since 2013.
