M-663 Robert Pettus Photography Collection

REPOSITORY: St. Louis Mercantile Library Special Collections

TITLE: M-663 Robert Pettus Photography Collection

DATE: circa 1966 – 2020

CREATOR: Pettus, Robert (1938-2021)

ABSTRACT: Collection of photographic prints, transparencies and negatives of architectural and fine art subjects, taken by Robert Pettus.

EXTENT: 18 linear feet

LANGUAGE: English

SCOPE: The collection includes materials created and accumulated by Robert Pettus relating to his career in architectural and fine art photography. The collection contains archival materials, publications, photographs, and some business correspondence in addition to color transparencies, negatives, and prints of architectural projects and fine art subjects. The architectural projects are largely focused in St. Louis, though other cities are featured as well.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Robert Pettus (20 December 1938 – 16 July 2021) trained as an architect but made his career in architectural and fine art photography. His photographic works have appeared in major architectural magazines including: Architectural Record, Architecture, Domus, Japan Architecture, and featured in The New York Times Sunday Magazine. His exhibitions include shows at: Knowlton School of Architecture, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio (2003), Chicago Architectural Foundation, Chicago (2002); Forum for Contemporary Art, St. Louis (2001), Tucson Museum of Art, Tucson, Arizona (2000), and Bruno David Gallery, St. Louis (2019). Pettus was the recipient of a grant from the Ford Foundation to photograph historic railroad stations throughout the nation. Pettus' work is found in several public and private collections including Museum of Modern Art, New York, Library of Congress, The Smithsonian Institution, Washington D.C., and the Center for Creative Photography, University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona.

ACCESS: Portions of this collection are housed off-site. Please contact the staff in advance of your visit to coordinate access to these materials for research purposes.

This collection is available for on-site use only in the Rare Book and Manuscripts Reading Room. Some of the material may be photocopied, digitally scanned or photographed, subject to condition and other access restrictions. Information on conducting research with the archival collections of the Library, including current building hours and reading room policies, can be found on our Research page. The St. Louis Mercantile Library is located on levels one and two of the Thomas Jefferson Library building on the University of Missouri-St. Louis' north campus.

Preferred Citation: When citing the material from this collection, the preferred citation is: From the Special Collections of the St. Louis Mercantile Library at the University of Missouri – St. Louis.
