

M.C. New Year 36

Chy Barnard Jr Esqr.

Dear Sir.

I write you this to inform you that we had all the Estimates made out by the 29th. without any difficulty we have been up to rights last week and laid that out between the Shanty and the Road we also laid out about 10 chains on the lower Section commencing about the middle of the Section Henry & N. High is sick at Stony Creek, his Brother George was down to day, he said he was afraid the he never would be well again. Mr Broadrick will commence his Sowing Path on Monday or Tuesday, it seems that they cannot come to any Terms with Mr Brown.

we have considerable of a Thaw here now, and are afraid the Ice will go.

Mr Gouthrope returned on the day after you started. He rode from Brunswick to W. Meadow on Sunday in a Sleigh, and on Monday footed it down here.

I saw Mr H. a few days after he was married speaking of the wedding &c. he told me that she had not quite used him up yet that he could jerk me out of my Boots yet if he tried hard, I tell you he looked as though he had been followed and then drawn through a knot hole. Mr Ing- and his followers have a frolic tomorrow evening at Corners.

Mr Douglas started for Conn. on the 29th. via Jersey.

The Irish and Black Dutch have a little squabble at Whighton, in which the latter proved victorious. Yesterday Mr Knowles directed a newspaper to you containing Mr Pitman's ^{or message} speech, as it was originally written by himself before enclosing it Mr Squire Wallace read the Message before a number of our hon. Citizens. Concluding it by asking the Congregation for some more of dem little Hocs.

don't forget the Paints India Rubber

Instrument, and Christmas Box. Also bring me a first Rate Cake of India ink like that of Gouthrope.

Miss Julia Mr Gouthrope and a number of your friends send their Love. I will conclude by asking you to write soon.

Yours Most Obedient &c

Mo Disarming Jr

189/11

Mr. Chauncey Barnard Jr.
Civil Engineer
Hartford City
Connecticut

Wm. H. H. H.