University of Missouri—St. Louis

Reaching Out to You

You can earn a high quality, fully accredited, low-cost college degree that is close to home from the University of Missouri-St. Louis. In cooperation with Jefferson College, Mineral Area College, St. Charles Community College, and St. Louis Community College at Wildwood, UMSL offers degree credit courses which lead to a smooth transition for transfer students interested in completing a Bachelor’s degree. The faculty and staff of the community colleges and UMSL are committed to helping you achieve your academic goals.

Courses are offered in a variety of formats through the Off-Campus Degree Completion program, including on-site, Internet-based and interactive television (ITV). Courses are also available through video instruction or correspondence. All courses are taught by UMSL faculty.

UMSL School of Social Work

The School of Social Work offers courses leading to a Bachelor of Social Work degree (B.S.W.).

The B.S.W. program is fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The faculty stresses the scientific and applied aspects of social work. Professional social work education enables students to integrate the knowledge, values and skills of the profession into competent practice. The Department’s approach is reflected in an emphasis on the development of theoretical and methodological tools. There is a strong emphasis on practice, with community and social agency fieldwork as important parts of the program.

Faculty members are engaged in research on urban-related issues and work with various agencies, particularly in the areas of health care, family violence, social welfare, community development, gerontology and education.
