HUMANITIES

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF LEARNED SOCIETIES

ACLS is the leading private institution supporting scholars in the humanities and related social sciences at the doctoral and postdoctoral levels. Fellowships and grants are offered through multiple programs.

SCHOOL FOR ADVANCED RESEARCH

The Resident Scholar Fellowships support scholars who need time to prepare manuscripts or dissertations on topics important to understanding humankind. The School also offers various other fellowships in the humanities.

AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY

The American Antiquarian Society offers three broad categories of visiting research fellowships, with tenures ranging from one to twelve months. All the fellowships are designed to enable academic and independent scholars and advanced graduate students to spend an uninterrupted block of time doing research in the AAS library. Discussing this work with staff and other readers is a hallmark of an AAS fellowship.

GERDA HENKEL FOUNDATION

Archaeology, Art History, Historical Islamic Studies, History

ANDY WARHOL FOUNDATION FOR THE VISUAL ARTS

Offers various grants and fellowships in the field of art including the Writing Initiative, Arts, Culture, Society, Creative Capital, and Curatorial Fellowships

JOHN SIMON GUGGENHEIM FOUNDATION

The Foundation offers fellowships to further the development of scholars and artists by assisting them to engage in research in any field of knowledge and creation in any of the arts, under the freest possible conditions and irrespective of race, color, or creed. The Foundation receives approximately 3,000 applications each year. Although no one who applies is guaranteed success in the competition, there is no prescreening: all applications are reviewed.

SAMUEL H. KRESS FOUNDATION

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY SCHOOL OF HISTORICAL STUDIES

Offers the Mellon School of Historical Studies Fellowship, one-year program memberships to support assistant professors for one academic year in the fields of historical research

AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

Small grants used for research expenses

AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

Research Grants: Nine grant or fellowship programs in a wide range of fields. Franklin, Lewis and Clark, Lewis and Clark Astrobiology, Library Digital Humanities Fellowship, Library Fellowship, and Phillips programs award small grants ($1,000–$6,000) for modest research purposes. Daland, Library Long-Term Pre-Doctoral Fellowship, and Mellon Post-Doctoral Fellowship programs award much larger amounts ($25,000–$45,000) in highly selective competitions.

Awards are made for noncommercial research only. The APS makes no grants for academic study or classroom presentation, travel to conferences, non-scholarly projects, assistance with translation, or the preparation of materials for use by students. The APS does not pay overhead or indirect costs to any institution or publication costs, and grant funds are not to be used to pay income tax on the award.

TEAGLE FOUNDATION

Advancing the liberal arts, broadening access to a liberal arts education, enhancing student learning, dissemination on the value of liberal arts education, and best practices in teaching the arts and sciences (Education for American Civic Life, Pathways to the Liberal Arts, Liberal Arts and the Professions, College-Community Connections)

WABASH CENTER

Funds projects that enhance teaching and learning in the fields of religion or theology and that promote a sustained conversation about pedagogy through the improvement of practical applications of teaching and learning methods, the encouragement of research and study of pedagogical issues, and the creation of a supportive environment for teaching

SOCIAL SCIENCES

WENNER-GREN FOUNDATION

All programs fund anthropological research; Grants for Doctoral Students, Grants for Post-PhD. Scholars, Grants for Non-U.S. Scholars, Conferences and Workshops, Historical Archives Program, Institutional Development Grant

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA

Offers a large variety of funding opportunities open to members of AIA

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH COUNCIL (SSRC)

The Council's programs nurture the excellent, the experimental, and the innovative in the following thematic areas (as of Feb 2019): Digital Knowledge, Media, & Data, Economic & Social Policy, Global & Regional Connections, Governance, Democracy & Civil Society, Health & Environment, Higher Education, Peace, Conflict & Security.

FORD FOUNDATION

Civic Engagement & Government, Creativity & Free Expression, Disability Rights, Gender, Racial, and Ethnic Justice, Technology & Society, Natural Resources & Climate Change, Future of Workers. Ford is open to new ideas. You can submit through their online form. The foundation will review each one and be in touch within 45 days if they are interested in learning more. Before submitting your idea, familiarize yourself with our seven program areas above and peruse funded projects.

LYNDE AND HARRY BRADLEY FOUNDATION

In line with its mission and guiding principles, the Bradley Foundation has identified four priority giving areas: Constitutional Order, Free Markets, Civil Society, and Informed Citizens. Within each of these giving areas, a comprehensive strategy will be identified and pursued to advance the Foundation's principles from ideas to implementation. In keeping with the Foundation's historical practice, a significant portion of its grant making in each giving area—and approximately 30% of the Foundation's overall unrestricted giving each year—will be directed toward organizations in Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Additionally, a significant percentage of its grants in each giving area will be allocated toward higher-risk, entrepreneurial giving - "venture capital" investments in new ideas, organizations, and leaders who are tackling the Foundation's priority issues in innovative ways that show high potential for significant impact.

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES

Strategic awards to graduate students and untenured faculty for presentations travel to interviews/archives/libraries, participation in career enhancing seminars, distribution of published articles, submission of unpublished manuscripts to publishers

ANNIE E. CASEY FOUNDATION

Casey's work focuses on ensuring kids have strong, supportive families; increasing economic opportunity; transforming struggling communities; and strengthening social sector leaders dedicated to improving the lives of young people. To those ends, they invest in innovative ideas, practices and policies that have the potential to help millions thrive. Grant making is very selective. Current funding priorities include child welfare (foster care), community change (community development), and economic opportunity (employment, education, and training, and juvenile justice).

W.K. KELLOGG FOUNDATION

The W.K. Kellogg Foundation is committed to ensuring all children, families and communities – regardless of race or income – have opportunities to reach their full potential. Priorities include Thriving Children, Working Families, and Equitable Communities.

WILLIAM T. GRANT FOUNDATION

The William T. Grant Foundation invests in high-quality research focused on reducing inequality in youth outcomes and improving the use of research evidence in decisions that affect young people in the United States. Focus areas include Reducing Inequality, Improving the Use of Research Evidence, Connecting Research, Policy, and Practice. Funding includes research grants and the William T. Grant Scholars Early Career Grants.

JAPAN FOUNDATION CENTER FOR GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP

CGP supports an array of institutions and individuals, including nonprofit organizations, universities, policymakers, scholars, and educators, and believes in the power of broad-based, multi-channel approaches to effect positive change through the following mechanisms:

- Administering grant programs to support collaborative projects conducted by the people of Japan, the United States and other countries that address issues of global concern
- Supporting fellowships
- Co-organizing projects with a variety of other institutions

The Microsoft Research Faculty Fellowship recognizes innovative, promising new faculty members, whose exceptional talent for research and innovation identifies them as emerging leaders in their fields. Microsoft has a variety of academic funding programs including Microsoft Research AI & Society Fellows, Faculty Fellowships and Dissertation grants

ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN IN MATHEMATICS \(AWM\)

Travel and mentoring travel grants to domestic or foreign conferences

PHYSICAL SCIENCES

THE EPPLEY FOUNDATION FOR RESEARCH

Applied science in chemistry, physics, and biology

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Research Grants, Fellowships, Education Grants

CAMILLE & HENRY DREYFUS FOUNDATION

The Camille Dreyfus Teacher-Scholar Awards Program supports the research and teaching careers of talented young faculty in the chemical sciences. Based on institutional nominations, the program provides discretionary funding to faculty at an early stage in their careers.

COTTRELL SCHOLARS

The Cottrell Scholar (CS) program champions the very best early career teacher-scholars in chemistry, physics, and astronomy by providing significant discretionary awards for research.

HYDROPOWER FOUNDATION

The primary purpose of Hydropower Foundation (HPF) is "advancing hydropower's role in our clean energy future through research and education." As such, the HPF encourages the development of projects and programs from within or related to the hydropower industry at all levels.

The Arnold & Mable Beckman Foundation

The Arnold and Mabel Beckman Foundation provides grants to researchers and non-profit research institutions in chemistry and life sciences to promote scientific discoveries and particularly to foster the invention of methods, instruments, and materials that will open new avenues of research.

LIFE SCIENCES

WHITEHALL FOUNDATION

Dynamic areas of basic biological research that are not heavily supported by federal agencies or other foundations

HUMAN FRONTIER SCIENCE PROGRAM

Frontier research into complex biological systems. Novel, innovative, and interdisciplinary basic research focused on the complex mechanisms of living organisms ranging from molecular and cellular approaches to systems and cognitive neuroscience and their interactions between organisms. Research grants, career development awards, postdoctoral fellowships uses surplus income to benefit biology and the biological community. A key way in which we do this is through our grants, which support and encourage the sharing of knowledge throughout the community by facilitating international collaboration, event attendance and organization of scientific meetings, conferences and workshops.

THE COMPANY OF BIOLOGISTS

THE LEAKEY FOUNDATION
