

JUNIOR FACULTY TRAVEL GRANT COMPETITION 2023 Application Form

Name:
Title/Rank:
Department:
College:

If non-tenure track, what percentage of your effort distribution is devoted to research?

Conference you plan to attend:

Date:
Location:
Website:

Check ALL that apply below concerning your participation in this conference:

- ☐ I am the primary author of an accepted presentation, paper, poster or performance.
- ☐ I have applied to present a presentation, paper, poster or performance.
- ☐ My student is the primary author of an accepted presentation, paper, poster or performance.
- ☐ My student has applied to present a presentation, paper, poster or performance.
- ☐ I am an invited panel presenter, discussant or session host.
- ☐ I serve on the planning committee for this conference.
- ☐ I am presenting at a pre-conference workshop or session.
- ☐ Other (please include this information in the justification narrative below).

Maximum Award Size: $1500. Please list estimated travel costs, conference registration fees, estimated hotel cost, etc., in as much detail as possible.

ORECD Conference travel funds receive from 8/1/2021-12/31/2023:

Additional funding from other sources available to cover travel to this conference:

Presentation Title (and abstract, if available):

Narrative: Describe your presentation and/or conference participation in terms non-specialist colleagues will understand, and how it will advance your research, contribute to UMSL's research mission, and your standing among your peers.