

What is cross campus enrollment?

Cross campus enrollment gives currently enrolled, undergraduate degree-seeking students from UMSL the opportunity to enroll in a class(s) at another UM school.

Who is the host institution?

The host institution is the other UM school where you would like to participate in cross enrollment

Who is the home institution?

The home institution is the school at which you are enrolled as a degree-seeking student.

Why should I cross enroll?

Cross campus enrollment gives UMSL students more flexibility with their course selection. If a course is full, or not offered at UMSL, you might be able to enroll in the same course on another UM campus.

What are the benefits of cross enrollment?

Flexibility with course selection, no application fees, and automated transcripts sent after course completion at the host institution enable you to stay on target to graduate. Financial aid recipients may also receive some benefits by enrolling at another UM campus vs. a non-UM campus.

Will my courses meet degree requirements at UMSL?

Before enrolling at another UM campus, please check with your advisor to verify the course is applicable to your degree program and/or requirements.

How do I apply for cross campus Enrollment?

Go to Self Service in MyView and click on Enroll: MU, UMKC, MST. By submitting your request through the cross campus enrollment page in MyView, your data will be automatically shared with the other campus so they can review your eligibility to enroll.

I clicked on Enroll: MU, UMKC, MST in Self-Service and it will not allow me to apply for cross campus enrollment.

You may have a hold on your account and are not eligible at this time. Check your hold history via MyView Self-Service. If a hold exist that prohibits registration at UMSL, it will stop enrollment at the other UM campus. Contact the appropriate office related to the hold. If you have further questions, please contact the Registrar's Office at UMSL.

Do I need a consortium agreement?

Possibly. A consortium agreement is a written agreement between two schools where one of the schools provides some of the instruction for students enrolled at, and receiving the degree from the other school, and the school awarding the degree or credential agrees to give credit to the student for that instruction/coursework. The consortium also establishes the terms under which financial aid is awarded for the courses in question. If you are receiving financial aid and want to have that aid help cover the costs at the other school, contact student Financial Assistance at 314-516-5526.

I was successful in requesting enrollment. What happens next?

You will receive an admit letter explaining how to enroll from the other UM Campus.

How much will I be charged?

Students will be charged at the host campus's rate. All applicable tuition and fees will apply.

Will I get one bill or two?

You will get a bill from each campus. Bills are sent to your UM assigned email account. Keep in mind that course fees may be different at each campus as well as residency requirements.

Can I drop a course at UMSL and add a class on another campus without additional cost?

All courses dropped at UMSL will be subject to the normal reassessment schedule and full tuition and fees will be assessed by the other campus at the other campus's rates.

What if I need to withdraw from the course?

Please contact the Registrar's Office at the host school.

What refunds are available?

You may check the fee reassessment schedule at <http://www.umsel.edu/cashiers/tuition-fees/fee-reassessment.html>. Check the other UM campus's Cashier's Office webpage for details on their specific reassessment/refund policy.

How do I know the calendar for the course?

Please check with the academic calendar on the campus in which you have cross enrolled.

How do I know this course will transfer?

Please check with your home campus advisor to ensure that the course will transfer. You may also check the Transfer Equivalency database at <http://www.umsel.edu/transferservices/transfer-tools/credit-equivalency/index.html>

Will I need to send a transcript back to UMSL after completing my course?

No. As a benefit of participating in cross campus enrollment, UM campuses will share transcripts once grades have been posted.
