

Important advice for students

Student loan and financial planning checklist

This checklist can help you get organized as you get ready to leave school. Start by collecting all of your student loan documents and keep them in one file. Examples of these documents include Master Promissory Notes, financial aid offers, lender/servicer communications, disclosure statements, and exit interview information.

Student loan and financial planning checklist		Helpful resources
<input type="checkbox"/>	Create your FSA ID for access to the Federal Student Aid's online systems.	StudentAid.gov
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify the types of student loans you have—federal or private—and understand their terms and conditions, such as interest rates and loan balances. Make a list of your student loan servicers and their contact information. The best resource for locating your private student loan servicers is to request a copy of your credit report. (Note: All of your loan servicers may not appear on the report.)	Federal loans: StudentAid.gov Private loans: AnnualCreditReport.com
<input type="checkbox"/>	Federal Direct Loan program documents (Direct Subsidized Loans, Direct Unsubsidized Loans, Direct PLUS Loans for Graduate & Professional Students, and Direct PLUS Loans for Parents): Go to StudentAid.gov . Visit Complete Aid Process at StudentAid.gov to find Master Promissory Notes and Disclosure Statements.	StudentAid.gov
<input type="checkbox"/>	Federal FFEL Loan documents (FFEL Subsidized Stafford, FFEL Unsubsidized Stafford, FFEL PLUS Loans for Graduate & Professional Students, FFEL PLUS Loans for Parents): These include Master Promissory Notes and disclosure statements.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Private/alternative loan documents: These include promissory notes and communications, Truth-in-Lending disclosures, bills, emails, and letters.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Keep your contact information up to date in your lender's or servicer's records, so you don't miss important communications.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Save time —Sign up to manage your account online and receive email communications.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Save money —Sign up for automatic debit and research any borrower benefits or repayment incentives that may help your budget.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Know your monthly payments and due dates —Know when your loan(s) enter repayment, the amount of your monthly payment(s), and when each payment is due.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Federal loan repayment plans and calculators — Visit StudentAid.gov to identify the repayment options available on your loans and review the associated costs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Standard repayment • Graduated repayment • Income-Contingent Repayment (ICR)— Available for Direct Loans only • Income-Sensitive Repayment (ISR)— Available for FFEL Loans only • Extended repayment • Income-Based Repayment (IBR) • Pay As You Earn (PAYE) • Loan consolidation 	StudentAid.gov or contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Repaying your private/alternative loans —For payment schedules and amounts, refer to the promissory note and communications from your servicer for details.	Contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Postponing repayment on federal loans —Having trouble making payments? Visit StudentAid.gov to research deferment, forbearance, and other forms of payment relief.	StudentAid.gov or contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Loan consolidation for federal loans —Research loan consolidation options at StudentAid.gov .	StudentAid.gov or contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Loan forgiveness for federal loans —Visit StudentAid.gov to research loan discharge and forgiveness opportunities and conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) • Discharge/cancellation • Cancellation and deferment options for teachers 	StudentAid.gov or contact your lender or servicer
<input type="checkbox"/>	Understand student loan interest deduction — Look for IRS Form 1098-E (Student Loan Interest Summary).	Contact your student loan servicer(s) or your tax advisor

Important advice for students

Student loan and financial planning checklist

Track the information you'll need for your federal and private loans.

Tracking my loans
Type of loan	Servicer	Servicer contact info	Loan amount	Interest rate	Grace period (Yes or No)	Action date*

*Action date is the date you want to begin taking action on your loans. For instance, if you have a grace period, a possible action could be contacting your servicer 35-40 days prior to its expiration date. Or, if you don't have a grace period you may want to contact your servicer 35-40 days before your graduation date.

Sallie Mae does not provide, and these materials are not meant to convey, financial, tax, or legal advice. Consult your own financial advisor, tax advisor, or attorney about your specific circumstances.

External links and third-party references are provided for informational purposes only. Sallie Mae cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information provided by any third parties, and Sallie Mae assumes no responsibility for any errors or omissions contained therein. Any copyrights, trademarks, and/or service marks used in these materials are the property of their respective owners.

© 2020 Sallie Mae Bank. All rights reserved. Sallie Mae, the Sallie Mae Logo, and other Sallie Mae names and logos are service marks or registered service marks of Sallie Mae Bank. All other names and logos used are the trademarks or service marks of their respective owners. SLM Corporation, including Sallie Mae Bank, are not sponsored by or agencies of the United States of America. SMSCH MKT15604 1020