Dependency Override in Secure Document Upload

2024-2025
Unusual Circumstances (F25IOV)

Student Name _____ Student ID# _____

For the 2024-2025 award year, a student is considered provisionally independent if they can answer “Yes” to the question in Section 7 (Student Unusual Circumstances) of the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students who do not meet one of these standards are therefore dependent by federal regulations and must add their parent(s) to the contributor section of the FAFSA form.*

The following conditions are not usually considered for dependency overrides:

- Parents’ refusal to contribute to the student’s education
- Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for the verification process
- Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes
- Students who demonstrate total self-sufficiency
- Students do not reside with their parents

However, if you believe there are unusual circumstances that might warrant your being considered independent of your parents, this form provides instructions to petition for independent status. Unusual circumstances are cases such as an abusive family environment, or abandonment by parents where attainment of parental financial documents or support is impossible.

Please provide three (3) typed letters, one from yourself, and two additional letters from two independent parties [other than parent(s)] that summarize your unusual circumstance(s). Letters from persons in a professional capacity (on their letterhead) are most helpful. Handwritten letters will not be accepted. Please note that you may be required to supply additional information. If further information is needed, we will update your MyView to-do list.

You will be notified in writing about the decision on your request. (Please allow 2-3 weeks for a response.)

If you haven’t done so already, we recommend that you immediately file the FAFSA with the information that is available to you, in order to avoid missing a scholarship or state program deadline.

I certify that the attached information provided is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I agree to provide additional proof of the information given if requested by Student Financial Services. I understand that if the information is incomplete or lacks the required documentation, no action will be taken.
