

MEDIA RELEASE

Contact: Kathleen A. Schue
Director of Communications and Public Relations
St. Louis Arc
314.817.2232
kschue@slarc.org

St. Louis Arc Welcomes New Vice President of Support Services and Strategy

St. Louis, MO (May 21, 2020)

The St. Louis Arc is pleased to announce the promotion of Stephanie Scott to Vice President of Support Services and Strategy.

For nearly 10 years, Stephanie has overseen quality for the St. Louis Arc. She has been instrumental in establishing benchmarks and logic models for each service the St. Louis Arc provides. Stephanie joined the St. Louis Arc in 2010 as the Coordinator of Quality Enhancement, and in 2019 began overseeing staff training and development. She has worked to build capacity for internal evaluation and achieve the highest level of Accreditation with Distinction from the Council on Quality and Leadership (CQL), making St. Louis Arc one of just a few organizations worldwide who have achieved this goal. In her new role, Stephanie will oversee transitional age and limited supports, which includes: Employment, Leisure, Connect, Launch, in addition to Nutrition and Adult ABA services. Stephanie will continue to work on overall strategy and quality for the agency.

In 2014, Stephanie was recognized as one of ANCOR's Emerging Leaders. She holds a master's degree in Social Work from the University of Missouri – St. Louis, and became a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in 2015. Stephanie was named Social Work Alumna of the Year by the Social Work Alumni Network at UMSL in 2019.

The St. Louis Arc is a non-profit United Way agency that provides support and services to more than 4,000 adults and children with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and their families, throughout the metropolitan St. Louis area. For more information, visit www.slarc.org.

Editor's Note: The St. Louis Arc is not an acronym; always refer to us as St. Louis Arc or The St. Louis Arc. The St. Louis Arc should be considered as a title or a phrase.

###