* The UMSL Bachelor of Arts in Modern Language: Concentration in Japanese requires a student to complete a Japanese course every semester for eight semesters to be able to graduate in four years. STLCC does offer two semesters of coursework in Japanese. However, if a student were to complete an Associate of Arts degree with only these courses and then transfer, they would still have three years to go to graduate. Therefore, it is recommended that a student begin attending UMSL through dual enrollment while working on their Associates and take an UMSL Japanese course in their third and fourth semesters. These courses can then be transferred back to STLCC to apply as electives in this Associate's program and the student will be able to graduate with their Bachelor's degree in four years.
