The Department of Economics is seeking to fill a tenure track position at the Assistant Professor level beginning August 1, 2020. The position is for a macroeconomist with an ability to teach time series econometrics and international economics. Candidates must hold a PhD in Economics or provide evidence that they will complete it by August 1, 2020. Candidates should be committed to excellence in teaching and are expected to have an active research agenda leading to publications in peer-reviewed journals.

Candidates must apply online at www.umsl.jobs and must submit their CV, a letter expressing interest, one recent research (job market) paper, a short summary of their research agenda, and teaching evaluations. Candidates must also arrange to have three reference letters sent to umsleconsearch@umsl.edu. To ensure full consideration for the position, the application must be received by November 15, 2019, but the committee will continue to accept applications until the position is filled. For additional information on this position, send inquiries to umsleconsearch@umsl.edu. For information on the UMSL Department of Economics see www.umsl.edu/~econ/.
