

Political Science Departmental Funding Request

Instructions: Conference funding may be awarded to graduate students once per academic year for $300, based on availability of funds. Students must be presenting a paper, not just attending a conference. The application needs to be turned in 30 days ahead of time. Make sure to sign this statement and turn it in to either Raphael or Dr. Robertson for the Chair's approval. Applicants must have also applied for Graduate School funding as well as PSGSA funding before applying for department funds.
